All things

God created all things, and they were good

All things have fallen from that original goodness.

Christ, who has redeemed all things, eventually will restore them.

We aid the Spirit's work of restoration

by seeking to make all things better.

Denver Christian Indian Center

We would love to have you join us for an 11:30 a.m. Sunday service, to see for yourself what we are all about. Through contemporary worship service, with traditional and Native American hymnal and praise songs, and practical messages that represents Jesus Christ in a culturally relevant way, we present the truths of the Bible in a way that is easy to understand.

Richard Silversmith

Our Sunday morning teachers consist of Natives and non-Native speakers who affirm, embrace and respect the unique and God-given cultural realities of our people.

We have a reformed perspective that emphasizes God's creative relationship over this world and all of us and an emphasis that we do not earn grace, are never threatened by grace, and will not compromise on that grace. We learn about that grace from the person of Jesus who is disclosed to us in the Bible, which is at the center of all worship.

We pray that you will meet God and friends in a fresh way through our worship, meals, or conversations. We invite you to join us continually as we journey together in pursuing the dreams and love of God for the world in the way of Jesus Christ.

The goal of Christian Indian Center is to enable indigenous believers of Jesus Christ to meet, and express themselves to God and to each other in ways which affirm godly indigenous teaching, worship, pasturing, evangelism, and discussion.
